I Like Myself! (Wanda Gág Read Aloud Book Award winner, 2005) is a children's book that displays a little girl who likes herself, just as she is, for things that would be considered unconventional (wild hair and beaver teeth). Children will love this book for it's catchy rhyming and beautiful, colorful illustrations.

Synopsis coming soon.....

At a young age, we are programmed for self-doubt by the way people speak to us, act towards us, judge us, compare us. Often we allow the feeling of "I am not good enough" to become "I am not good." Too often we judge ourselves negatively and lose self-confidence. Told through the simple story of his own life and struggles, Mr. Skillin shows you how to move on from self-doubt and make self-confidence the dominant force in your life.

Are you feeling stressed? Is life all about work and responsibilities? Do you want to change your life? A time came in Vandana Sehgal's life when she was struggling with her negative mindset and was not able to find the reason of her being. She couldn't find fulfilment in work and life. In those moments she took an important decision- stand tall for a better life and to push herself beyond the limits. Giving up was not the option for her as she was not ready to accept a life filled with sufferings. She chose compliment over complaint, connection over comparison and confidence over criticism. I Love Myself has evolved from her personal learnings and her victory over the negative mindset. It aims to remind you that your life is a gift and every moment of your life holds something special. The book encourages you to believe in yourself. At the core of this book is the belief that you are the creator of your life and born with all the abilities to shape it as you wish. The real-life examples, interactive tools and simple exercises challenges you to take the ownership of your life and live it to the fullest level of fulfilment, love and gratitude.

Meet a boy with feelings so big that they glow from his cheeks, spill out of his eyes, and jump up and down on his chest. When a loud truck drives by, he cries. When he hears a joke, he bursts with joy. When his loved ones are having a hard day, he feels their emotions as if they were his own. The boy tries to cope by stuffing down his feelings, but with a little help and artistic inspiration, the boy realizes his feelings are something to be celebrated. Written by debut picture book author Britney Winn Lee and boldly illustrated by Jacob Souva, The Boy with Big, Big Feelings is relatable for any child, but especially for children experiencing anxiety and extreme emotions, or who have been diagnosed with autism or as a Highly Sensitive Person.

Do you like to do things all by yourself? What can you do all by yourself? Do you like someone to help you sometimes? When do you like to have some help?

A revelatory memoir by rock icon and legendary guitarist Peter Frampton. Do You Feel Like I Do? is the incredible story of Peter Frampton's positively resilient life and career told in his own words for the first time. His monu-mental album Frampton Comes Alive! spawned three top-twenty singles and sold eight million copies the year it was released (more than seventeen million to date), and it was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in January 2020. Frampton was on a path to stardom from an early age, first as the lead singer and guitarist of the Herd and then as cofounder -- along with Steve Marriott -- of one of the first supergroups, Humble Pie. Frampton was part of a tight-knit collective of British '60s musicians with close ties to the Rolling Stones, the Beatles, and the Who. This led to Frampton playing on George Harrison's solo debut, All Things Must Pass, as well as to Ringo Starr and Billy Preston appearing on Frampton's own solo debut. By age twenty-two, Frampton was touring incessantly and finding new sounds with the talk box, which would become his signature guitar effect. Frampton remembers his enduring friendship with David Bowie. Growing up as schoolmates, crossing paths throughout their careers, and playing together on the Glass Spider Tour, the two developed an unshakable bond. Frampton also shares fascinating stories of his collaborative work with Harry Nilsson, Stevie Wonder, B. B. King, and members of Pearl Jam. He reveals both the blessing and curse of Frampton Comes Alive!, opening up about becoming the cover boy he never wanted to be, his overcoming sub-stance abuse, and how he has continued to play and pour his heart into his music despite an inflammatory muscle disease and his retirement from the road. Peppered throughout his narrative is the story of his favorite guitar, the Phenix, which he thought he'd lost in a fiery plane crash in 1980. But in 2011, it mysteriously showed up again -- saved from the wreckage. Frampton tells of that unlikely reunion here in full for the first time, and why the miraculous reappearance is emblematic of his life and career as a quintessential artist.
