Share your blessings, gifts, love, passions, and talents with the world! Love yourself more and dare to be different! Be A Blessing, Not A Burden is an inspirational and informative book that goes into great detail about what people experience every day. We live in a world that's full of both heavenly divineness and demonic corruption. There are so many people today who are lost, confused, and unfulfilled with their lives. Billions of people are not utilizing their true potential, talents, and gifts out of fear and worry. "The choices you make is the life you create!" This is one of the main reasons why I made a commitment to write this book. Be A Blessing, Not A Burden presents mature, in-depth knowledge and wisdom about the various intricacies of life today. This book also entails the different life perspectives of both men and women. Regardless of how you or anyone else's upbringing was, you ultimately decide how you want to live your life. With all of the various changes and advances the 21st century has brought, it has also strained the interactions and relationships between men and women greater than any previous century has ever before. People tend to easily take others for granted based on entitlement, immaturity, insecurity, and selfishness. Being closed off to people that are different from you can be quite detrimental to your future. Will you make better choices regarding your life today? I encourage you to be a blessing, not a burden. Utilize your unique abilities and potential capabilities to discover what you are able to accomplish. Challenge preconceived notions, what you have been conditioned to accept as the truth, and the various norms and values of our current society. Even if you have a little desire to improve your life and leave mediocrity behind, you have the potential to change your life for the better. Make improvements in your life by renewing your mind, being open to better possibilities, and make greater significant impacts on the lives of others. Embark on your journey to fulfill your life purpose and be a blessing to others along the way. Now is the time to make your life more fulfilling and share your blessings with others.

I reflect on the many routes I travelled and I see the variety of landscapes my eyes beheld. I think of the many slopes and the stale hills. I walked through valleys and rivers, big and small. I remember the great few mountains I gazed upon and the trees young, old, and tall. I walked different trails and opened my eyes in different places. I had seen grass dancing with the breeze and a clear blue sky. I remember a sunset waving to say goodnight and a moon trying to outshine the stars. I remember lying under the shade of a tree, watching a worm crawling on its stump. I have seen ants going about their business and insects great and small. I strolled between weeds and shrubs and played with their stems. As for my body, it knows how it feels to lie on meadows. I walked on sand and felt the tiny stones between my toes. Some late afternoons I heard birds singing with operatic voices. As a child I played in the rain and heard the thunder above my head. After the rain I saw the promise of God in the sky—a rainbow. I've watched the flow of a stream breaking on pebbles, and when I gazed up to the sky I saw clouds moving by. I already heard the wind in its fury and witnessed the ocean in its rage. I have seen a desert storm and hid my face from its rusty desert sand. I have seen flowers bloom and bees buzzing for their nectar. I know how to greet every new day with my prayers and give gratitude to the Creator for the creation. My journey is the recorded history of my time and in my time. I have seen what I have seen and know in my heart that life is a special gift. But I have also seen despair and troubled times. I had many encounters with dark days, but I rose from the pain. I have tasted my tears and seen my own blood. Every day I see my reflection in the mirror, then I remind myself that I am more than what I see. I go through bad times and also through good times. I sometimes fight fear, doubt, and tears, but I stand for the human race because it is my passion. I have seen human tears, emotional pain, and human fears. Therefore, within me there is a warrior that knows how to bleed and survive. Each day I learn to cope with the pressures of life, and I never give up on a grain of hope. I breathe, I laugh, I cry, but I am here and I exist. I was in my yesterday and will be in my tomorrow. At this moment I am now. I am the sentinel of my life and with my voice I announce that I am who I am and I am here with you on the same planet called Earth. Now you know who I am; I am mortal flesh.

Since she was a child, Michelle Louise Drought has been on a quest to discover the meaning of life. Through consistent communication with spirit over many years, she now knows that we are all here to learn love, find the truth within us, and then live by that truth. In her guidebook to finding happiness and fulfillment, Drought shares her personal experiences with spirit in order to show others how to manifest their true purpose in life, realize confidence, and embrace new beginnings. Through anecdotes that reveal her own personal journey to the truth and step-by-step metaphysical guidance, Drought teaches how to:

- Clear negative mind blocks through affirmations
- Distinguish between needs of the ego and soul
- Understand behavior, eliminate repeat patterns, and create positive changes
- Adhere to a soul purpose
- Learn self-love
- Live in the moment

Living the Truth, Sharing the Love shares personal stories, practical advice, and timetested wisdom that provides compassionate guidance to experiencing a wonderful life filled with love, joy, and freedom.

Ananda was a shy, small town girl from Alabama, but had some big city dreams. She was the younger sister and always leaned on her big sister for guidance and support. When she got older she realized her sister, who she loved dearly wasn't always going to be around, and had to learn how to allow her voice to be heard and become independent. She was raised with a good upbringing from her parents, and sheltered from the evils of the world, but after persuading her parents to work during her teenage years, she experienced discrimination on her very first job, which truly scared her heart. This motivated her to do well in school, graduate from college, look for job opportunities, and move far away. Ananda soon realized after she moved that ignorant people lives everywhere. Her life is an emotional rollercoaster as she experiences childhood bullying, death of loved ones, lasting friendships, happiness, infidelity, forgiveness, health and safety, hardships, finding true love, harassment in the workplace and cherishing marriage and family. As she gets older she realizes that the ups and downs of life can be exhausting and sometimes a little ME time may be just what the doctor ordered. Ananda discovers that the power of prayer and having a voice to speak up is essential to her everyday life's journey, as she takes control of her destiny.

FOOD FOR REFLECTION Life is a constant struggle for all that dwell on earth. The rich has its form of worries -perhaps how to generate more money, while the poor stays weary on how to make ends meet. It seems as though the more hurdles we cross, the more that awaits us, and no matter how hard we may try, we always fall short of our expectations. What do we do then? Do we fold our tents and call it quits, crumble in the face of adversity or do we hide our face in disgrace hoping that our problems will fade away with time? No, it won't. Only the weak throws in the towel when the going gets rough, but the determined will always find a way to beat life traffics. "Treasures of the mind" is an inspirational guide tailored at helping you the reader deal with life challenges the best you can. This must have 365 daily insightful book is written with you in mind and as you embrace each day unknown with doubts and Sheikha Mona's Daughter By Marinda J. Hochadel Sheikha Mona's Daughter is the personal travel log of author Marinda J. Hochadel's many world travels and her experience with people. This book stresses three points, which intersect with each other and are of great interest and importance to her. Her first point is the unnecessary of wars and conflicts. The hypocrisy of the world leaders creates anger, hatred, and intolerance among their respective citizens and political groups. The second point is that human-trafficking, child slave labor, and child sex should be abolished, as they are a disgrace to humanity. Rich nations have the responsibility to see that human rights and social systems are enforced. Marinda believes ensuring all women and children in the world are educated will decrease poverty and stabilize nations. We all should join our hands against corruption that leads to the abuse of the poor. Last, but not least, we should respect the religions and cultures of our co-citizens and tolerate other nationalities. Marinda encourages her readers to think positively and respectfully about those whom we meet during our lives. She wishes that her feelings and thoughts are read all over the world.
