A highly-readable introduction to archeology that details the expeditions and work of individuals who made such important discoveries as Troy, Pompeii, Teotihuacan, and the Tower of Babel

This text describes 100 of the world's most important archaeological discoveries. Alongside the well-known are placed the equally important but less-familiar, all of which have helped our understanding of the past. However, the book acts as more than a catalogue: it is a celebration of the rich variety of subjects that archaeology encompasses - from fossil hominids to writing systems, from lost cities to shipwrecks, and from pre-history to medieval times.

Discusses Archaeological Sites And Artifacts In Greece And The Lands It Influenced Such As Troy, Knossos, Mycenae, Tiryns, The Palace Of Minos, Sparta, Samos, Athens, Delphi, Thera, Paestum, Epidaurus, Isthmia, Miletus, Alexandria, Delos, Rhodes, Palmyra, Baalbek, Cyrene, Corinth, Ephesus, And More.

Twenty-five archaeologists each tell an intimate story of their experience and entanglement with an evocative artifact.

Conveys the thrill of dramatic archaeological finds, including the Altamira cave paintings, tomb finds in Egypt and Mesopotamia, proofs of the existence of King Minos and the Minotaur, lost Central American civilizations, prehistoric tools in the American Southwest, the city of Ivory eyes in Alaska, and more.
